MedSource Hires New Associate Director of Clinical Operations

(Houston, TX and Raleigh, NC) – September 3, 2009 - MedSource, a Contract Research Organization (CRO) providing Phase I-IV clinical trials support, announced today that Ms. Parisa Jabbarzadegan has joined its company as Associate Director of Clinical Operations. With more than 12 years of experience in the clinical research industry she brings a wide range of global and domestic industry knowledge of the drug development process to MedSource.

Over the course of her career, Ms. Jabbarzadegan has held senior level clinical and project management positions with leading research organizations, most recently in the role of Principal Project Manager for PPD. Her therapeutic experience includes Infectious/Parasitic Diseases, Respiratory Diseases, and Digestive System Disorders.

As the Associate Director of Clinical Operations, Ms. Jabbarzadegan will serve as a primary contact to trial Sponsors and be integral in clinical project management, clinical monitoring, vendor management, and client relationship management at MedSource. She will be based at the firm's Raleigh, North Carolina office.

"Parisa has participated in multiple domestic and global clinical studies. She brings a deep level of research and management knowledge to our core clinical team," stated Eric Lund, President of MedSource.

MedSource specializes in complex diseases and study designs and has experience in more than 400 trials in Phases I-IV. For more information, visit <http://www.medsource.com>.
